

Self-Drive Visit to Balcombe Place and Lytton Frescoes at The Victory Hall Thursday 12th March 2026

The Victory Hall in Balcombe has a remarkable set of frescos by the artist Neville Lytton from 1923. A lecture has been arranged for the visit giving all of the background to this unusual site.

Balcombe Place is a grade 2 listed house, built in 1856 and managed by the descendants of Lord and Lady Denman's. Lady Gertrude Denman was the founding president of the WI and a director of the Women's Land Army during WW2. This property is rarely open so a great opportunity to visit.

Details : Meet at the Victory Hall Balcombe for 10.00, lecture at 10.15 for approx. 1 hour. Then 5 minute drive to Balcombe Place where you are free to wander thru the rooms at your own pace. There will be information in all the rooms and opportunity to enjoy tea/coffee and cake - available for purchase. The house closes at 2 pm.
