

Chiddingstone Castle

Monday 11th April 2022

Enjoy a self-drive visit to Chiddingstone Castle.

TN8 7AD, 30 minutes from Turners Hill

We meet @ 11am in the Castle tea room for refreshments, prior to starting our guided tour. The tour lasts about 1 hour.

Parking is abundant and close to the castle.

Lunch can be taken in the tea room of the Castle or there are good eateries in the village.

The Castle Inn Pub or the Tulip Tree tea rooms are to be recommended.

From Chiddingstone Castle you can take a 5 minute stroll over the bridge crossing the lake and into the National Trust village of Chiddingstone. Visit St Mary's Church, admire the Tudor buildings and walk up to the Chiding Stone, the origin of the village's name

Costs

£16 per person including morning tea/coffee and biscuits
cheques payable to "The Arts Society Turners Hill"

Note:- Once the society has committed to expenditure, refunds can only be made in exceptional circumstances.
