

DRAWN to WAR

12th April at 10.30a.m.

Scott Cinema East Grinstead

By special request Scott Cinema is screening a film on the life of Eric Ravilious.

Eric Ravilious was a British painter, designer, book illustrator and wood engraver .He grew up in Sussex and is particularly known for his watercolours of the South Downs He served as a war artist and sadly died on active service . He must be counted as one of Britain's greatest landscape artists.

The tickets will be £4.25 and will include a free tea or coffee at the check - in.

To book seats use the link <https://eastgrinstead.scottcinemas.co.uk/film/eric-ravilious-drawn-to-war>

It is advisable to book ahead although seats may be available on the day.

There is a lift on the ground floor area to the cinema entry otherwise it is quite a climb.

Allow sufficient time to book in prior to the screening at 10:30am
