

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHARLES DICKENS

A London Walk with Andrew Davies

Thursday 4th December 2025

Dickens was familiar with every inch of London and we will visit the places he knew and wrote about including the Old Curiosity Shop, the shrine at the old Pru building, Gray's Inn, the site of the infamous blacking factory where he entertained his mistress, and much more.

Meet at 11.15am outside Chancery Lane Tube Station. Ends at around 3.45pm. Afterwards you could take the opportunity to see the Oxford Street lights and do a bit of Christmas shopping?

Cost: £23 Cheques payable to "Turners Hill Arts Society"
